

Behavioral Therapist

Job post summary

Date posted: January 23, 2026

Pay: $30.00 per hour

Job description:

Are you compassionate, reliable, supportive and organized? If you are looking for a flexible job that will give you clinical supervision, along with a supportive working environment, then this is the position for you!

About More Maitri, Inc:

We are a non-profit human service agency dedicated to providing supports and services to persons with developmental and intellectual disabilities. Our philosophy is loving-kindness to all beings, beginning with oneself.

Hiring For:

Behavior Therapist: This is a community-based position that requires travel in the Denver Metro area. This position starts out as Part Time with the potential to be Full Time.

More Maitri, Inc. will provide training for: CPR/First Aid and CPI (Non-Violent Crisis Intervention)

More Maitri, Inc. can provide Clinical Supervision for this position if needed

Responsibilities:

- Carry a caseload of behavior therapy clients and meet with them weekly, unless otherwise specified
- Meet with potential clients and respond to referrals
- Attend scheduled sessions in an appropriate setting and implement one-to-one behavior intervention services with clients, staff and families
- Develop an assessment in conjunction with BT supervisor, client and client's supports
- Develop behavior plans and train team members on the plan
- Supervise activities of any behavior line staff that maybe assigned to your case load
- Implement behavior intervention strategies
- Maintain close, collaborative working relationships with community supports, case managers, individual's families, etc.
- Collect and analyze tracking data

- Keep in regular contact with Interdisciplinary team and attend all IDT meetings and annual meetings
- Meet with Supervisor/Director for weekly individual clinical supervision
- Manage your own schedule independently
- Document sessions and turn in documentation weekly including billable hours
- Complete time sheets and mileage accurately and completely and send in when it is due

Requirements:

- At a minimum Must have MSW, LPCC or Registered Psychotherapist licensure
- DORA Licensure and Malpractice Insurance
- Must have personal vehicle, car insurance and valid driver's license
- Excellent organizational, written and verbal communication skills
- Demonstrated understanding of programming/therapeutic services specific to persons with intellectual disabilities
- Proficiency using word processing, spreadsheet applications, online and traditional information databases

Job Type: Part-time

Benefits:

- Dental insurance
- Employee assistance program
- Vision insurance

Work Location: In person